SEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT PROFESSIONALISM COMMITTEE
LOCAL PROFESSIONALISM PANEL

I. Standards and Purpose:

The purpose of the Local Professionalism Panel program is to create a process in the Seventh Judicial Circuit that will enhance professionalism among members of the Florida Bar practicing in this circuit. This program recognizes that the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar identify a minimal level of conduct and ethical standards for members of the Bar, failing which members may be subject to discipline. The Local Professionalism Panel program is not intended to address conduct that may violate these Rules. It is designed to encourage compliance with aspirational goals identified in:

- a. "Ideals and Standards of Professionalism" promulgated by The Florida Bar;
- b. "Guidelines for Professional Conduct" promulgated by The Trial Lawyers Section of The Florida Bar; and
- c. Professionalism guidelines developed by the voluntary bar associations within the Seventh Judicial Circuit.

II. Initiation of a Complaint:

- a. Attorneys may initiate a written complaint, signed by the attorney who observes the alleged conduct in question. Attorneys are encouraged, prior to referring conduct to the panel, to discuss the situation with the other attorney involved in an effort to reach an amicable resolution consistent with the above-referenced professionalism standards and guidelines.
- b. Judges, at their discretion, may also refer conduct for consideration by the Local Professionalism Panel by initiating a signed, written complaint. Alternatively, Judges may directly respond and/or provide advice with regard to conduct observed by the Judge that the Judge believes may be inconsistent with the above-referenced professionalism standards and guidelines.
- c. The form required for initiation of a complaint is attached as Exhibit "A."

III. Procedure to Form Panel:

Complaints will be considered by a Local Professionalism Panel comprised of three individuals appointed by the Chief Judge. The Chief Judge will select from a cadre of lawyers designated as panel members by the Boards of Directors of the county bar associations within the Seventh Judicial Circuit. One such member will volunteer to act as chairperson of the committee. The review committee must include at least one member who practices within the same field of specialty as the individual who is the subject of the complaint.

IV. Review:

- a. All complaints must be made in writing and submitted to the panel via the president of the appropriate county bar association.

- b. Upon receipt, complaints will be forwarded by the county bar association president to the Chief Judge. The Chief Judge will refer the complaint, on a rotating basis, to one of the members of the panel who will review the complaint and consult with two other members of the committee to determine if any action should be taken. If, by majority, the committee determines that the complaint may be resolved by a telephone consultation with the lawyer who is the subject of the complaint, or by an informal meeting, the matter may be resolved informally by such means.
- c. In the event the complaint is not resolved by an informal telephone call, and a meeting (formal or informal) is required, the lawyer who is the subject of the complaint will be furnished with a copy of the complaint and provided an opportunity to submit a written response.
- d. If, by majority, the panel determines that the complaint presents a serious violation, then the panel will contact the referring lawyer and the lawyer who is the subject of the complaint and schedule a formal hearing. At said hearing, each party will have an opportunity to attend and present their positions. The hearing may be conducted with both the referring lawyer and the lawyer subject to the complaint present, in a mediation format, or in such other format as the panel deems appropriate.
- e. Upon conclusion of a formal hearing, the panel will issue a written decision and submit it to the Chief Judge. Copies will be provided to both the referring lawyer and the lawyer who is the subject of the complaint. Among other things, the committee may refer the subject lawyer to a mentor, and/or to Florida Lawyers Assistance, Inc., or The Florida Bar's Attorney Consumer Assistance Program.

V. Records:

A written record including the complaint, responses (if any), formal decision (if any), and memo outlining the resolution of the complaint, will be maintained by the Chief Judge for a period of sixty (60) days, after which said record will be destroyed. The Chief Judge will maintain program records, in docket form, identifying the complaint file number, the date the complaint was made, the manner in which the complaint was resolved, and the date of the resolution. These program records will not include the names of the referring or subject lawyers, but will be maintained in accordance with Rule 2.440, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration.

VI. Confidentiality:

All committee members, referring lawyers, and subject lawyers will be required to sign statements acknowledging:

- a. Information disclosed during the panel process is confidential and may not be disclosed to anyone except other panel members, the referring lawyer, or the subject lawyer; and
- b. The Local Professionalism Panel is a voluntary, informal program intended to be non-punitive, educational and constructive. It will not result in the imposition of sanctions or discipline.
